

Wall Pop Warner Football, Inc. Shack Rules and Responsibilities

- All participants will be required to work a total of 4 hours in order to fulfill their shack obligation.
- The WPW Board will not accommodate specific requests as far as times and dates.
- While working in the shack we cannot have children accompanying parents while your time commitment is being fulfilled.
- If you are assigned on a game day, you will be directed by a board member to fulfill a specific task i.e., grill, counter, 50/50 etc. If you choose not to do that specific task you will be asked to leave and your shack bond will be cashed.
- All participants must sign in.
- If you cannot work your assigned hours you are responsible for switching with another participant.
- The shack schedule will be posted on our Web site and at the shack prior to the start of the season.
- When a game is rained out, you will be required to work the rescheduled game time and date.
- All coaches are required to fulfill a 4-hour shack commitment.
- New cheer and football coaches may be asked to work special events, e.g., the Wall Fall Classic Soccer Tournament.
